PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The 12th Annual Coastal Dermatology Symposium features an educational program with internationally-known faculty who will provide the latest updates in medical dermatology and evidence to support proper diagnosis and treatment of various dermatologic conditions.

The Symposium will be held at the Monterey Plaza Hotel, Monterey, California, September 29-October 1, 2016. A special conference rate of $235-$395 per night (plus tax and service charges) has been secured at the Monterey Plaza for participants of the Symposium.

Register by June 30, 2016 and save up to $155 off the regular registration fee.

We look forward to seeing you in Monterey, California in September.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Dermatologists, dermatology residents, family practitioners, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, nurses, and other healthcare professionals who treat diseases of the skin.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this live activity, participants should be better able to:

• Apply the most current treatments for common skin diseases.
• Identify potential adverse effects and levels of efficacy of newer dermatologic treatments.
• Evaluate the role of emerging and currently available biologic agents in treating psoriasis and how they will be incorporated into practice.
• Diagnose problems in patients with complex medical dermatoses more accurately.
• Summarize the recent updates on the pathophysiology and treatment of acne and rosacea.
• Recognize and apply novel therapeutic developments for contact dermatitis and eczema.
• Analyze current and investigational treatments for the management of tinea and onychomycosis.
• Discuss approaches to treating pediatric inflammatory skin disease.

ACCREDITATION STATEMENTS

JOINT PROVIDER STATEMENT
This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the University of Louisville and Global Academy for Medical Education.
