Join us at Skin Disease Education Foundation’s 41st Annual Hawaii Dermatology Seminar™

We explore the latest advances in the treatment and management of common and complex diseases of the skin, both for adults and children as well as new developments in aesthetic medicine. Our exceptional faculty will present clinically relevant information that you will find immediately useful in the care of your patients. This six-day meeting provides interactive presentations, case studies in medical dermatology, live-patient injection sessions and multiple workshops. Learn from the experts about acne, rosacea, actinic keratoses, skin cancers, psoriasis, atopic dermatitis, nonsurgical facial rejuvenation, psoriatic arthritis, surgical pearls, and much more.

Skin Disease Education Foundation’s (SDEF) 41st Annual Hawaii Dermatology Seminar’s comprehensive agenda contains cutting edge, innovative and evolving issues relevant to practicing physicians and healthcare providers who treat diseases of the skin. Our scientific program has been designed to keep the clinician up-to-date on new developments within the field of dermatology.

This year we are offering the following interactive workshops: Dermoscopy: Tools to Use and Expert Practice Management.

We look forward to seeing you on Maui at SDEF’s 41st Annual Hawaii Dermatology Seminar, January 29-February 3, 2017. Don’t miss out; register today and save up to $245 with our first early bird discount which ends August 15, 2016. Additional discounts are available until December 15, 2016. Register early and save.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this live conference, participants should be better able to:

- Integrate into daily practice evidence-based recommendations on new and emerging therapies for common dermatologic diseases.
- Implement updated strategies for managing acne, rosacea, atopic dermatitis, contact dermatitis and actinic keratosis.
- Explain the roles of currently available biologic agents in the treatment of psoriasis and psoriatic arthritis, and appropriately incorporate newer biologics into therapeutic practice as these become available.
- Describe the mechanisms of action, efficacy, and safety of the biologic agents used to treat psoriasis, as well as the factors involved in appropriate patient selection.
- Assess patients for comorbidities and manage psoriasis as well as associated comorbidities.
- Integrate into daily practice new clinical developments and up-to-date guidelines for the management of rheumatoid arthritis (RA) and other immune-mediated inflammatory rheumatologic diseases.
- Analyze treatment approaches for the pediatric patient with common as well as complex skin diseases.
- Incorporate the recent research advances in understanding and treating pediatric dermatology issues such as atopic dermatitis and pediatric acne.
- Discuss new approaches to therapy including pathway targeted therapy in the treatment of melanoma.
- Assess the role of diagnostic tools and technology in diagnosis and detection of skin cancers.
- Recognize the factors that are important in selecting appropriate filler agents for treating different areas of the face and targeted planar depths.
- Compare and contrast the efficacy and safety of agents, devices, and techniques currently available in aesthetic and procedural dermatology.
- Determine the appropriate nonsurgical techniques for facial rejuvenation based on an enhanced understanding of facial anatomy.
- Examine energy-based technology for body contouring and discuss appropriate patient selection criteria for utilizing these devices.
- Evaluate the role of dermoscopy in clinical practice and demonstrate enhanced skill in using this technique to diagnose dermatologic disorders.
- Analyze emerging treatments for onychomycosis.

CONTINUING EDUCATION PHYSICIAN

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the University of Louisville and Skin Disease Education Foundation/GLOBALACADEMYCME.COM for medical education.

The University of Louisville is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing education for physicians.

The University of Louisville Office of Continuing Medical Education & Professional Development designates this live activity for a maximum of 34 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

AAPA CREDIT

Skin Disease Education Foundation’s 41st Annual Hawaii Dermatology Seminar (Program #216100) is recognized by the American Academy of Dermatology for 34 AAPA Recognized Credits and may be used toward the American Academy of Dermatology’s Continuing Medical Education Award.

NURSING CONTINUING EDUCATION

This educational activity for 34 contact hours is provided by Postgraduate Institute for Medicine. Pharmacotherapy contact hours for Advance Practice Registered Nurses will be designated on your certificate.

METHOD OF PARTICIPATION

In order to meet the learning objectives and receive continuing education credits, participants are expected to check in at the registration desk each day, attend the program and complete an online evaluation form at the conclusion of the program. A letter certifying your attendance and credit verification will be emailed to you upon completion of the online evaluation survey.

FACULTY DISCLOSURE

All relevant financial relationships with any commercial interests and/or manufacturers must be disclosed to participants at the beginning of each activity.

SPECIAL NEEDS

We encourage participation by all individuals. If you have a disability, advance notification of any special needs will help us better serve you. Please contact Global Academy for Medical Education at least 3 weeks in advance at 240.221.4404 or n.rillo@globalacademycme.com.

General Dermatology Module
Skin Disease Education Foundation (SDEF) has been approved by the American Board of Dermatology (ABD) to produce self-assessment activities. Self-assessment activities are intended to be of value to the practicing dermatologist. SDEF is solely responsible for the content. Please be sure to report completion of any self-assessment programs on your MOC table located in your ABD profile (www.abderm.org).

ABD MOC has reciprocity with ABMS specialty boards.

About the SDEF MOC Program:
- The self-assessment questions will cover primarily general medical dermatology, but will also include pediatric dermatology and aesthetic and procedural dermatology.
- ARS questions throughout the program ask audience members clinically relevant knowledge or practice-related questions, individuals answer using an ARS transponder, and the resulting spread of answers by the entire audience is provided for all participants to see. The answers are then discussed in an evidence-based fashion. Exact number of credits will be determined. Check our website for updates.
